

This volume of Lecture Notes in Bioinformatics (LNBI) contains selected papers from the workshop of the BioLINK Special Interest Group (SIG) on Linking Literature, Information and Knowledge for Biology. The workshop was held June 28-29, 2009 at the ISMB/ECCB 2009 conference in Stockholm (<http://www.iscb.org/ismbecb2009>). The BioLINK SIG meeting has been regularly held in association with the ISMB conferences since 2001, focusing on the development and application of resources and tools for biomedical text mining. The SIG is interdisciplinary in nature, and brings together researchers applying natural language processing, text mining, information extraction and retrieval in the biomedical domain, with scientists from bioinformatics and biology. This year the SIG included two special sessions, one on the analysis of images and figures, which play a critical role in scientific papers, and the other on the future of scientific publication. Overview papers concerned with both these topics are included in this volume.

The meeting featured invited talks, presentations of peer-reviewed contributed papers, reports from recent evaluations and workshops, as well as a poster session. The SIG solicited papers that discuss current biological image- and text-related needs, the challenges of meeting them, and the tools that may help address them. Specific topics include: biological image analysis and its relationship to biomedical text mining, application of text-mining tools to biomedical research, automated indexing of the biomedical literature, generation of structured digital abstracts, new evaluation measures to measure utility and usability of text mining tools integrated into the biologist's workflow, as well as new tools and applications, and future directions in biomedical text mining.
